

We all realize how bad things are with the economy. What many of us probably don't realize is how many people are affected right here in our area. Friends, neighbors, even relatives could be suffering and we might not know anything about it. Food Banks strive to keep their shelves stocked in order to help these people.

Cape Henlopen Food Basket (CHFB) is our local food bank located in Rehoboth, Delaware. CHFB is an all-volunteer organization; there are no paid employees. Our mission is to provide emergency food service to the needy people within the boundaries of the Cape Henlopen School District. We make no evaluation of our clients' needs; everyone, regardless of race, color, creed or national origin, is given some food. Here are some of the things that we provide to the folks who visit our facility:

- Peanut Butter
- Canned Tuna/Salmon
- Canned Fruits and Vegetables
- Canned Soups
- Fruit Juice
- Cereal
- Pasta, Noodles, Rice, Pancake Mix
- Vouchers for Milk, Eggs, Margarine and Bread

In these tough economic times, your generous donations of financial aid and food help us to help put food on the table for those less fortunate individuals and families who are struggling to survive. From January – September 2014, we have provided assistance to 1,900 households representing 3,655 adults and 1,679 children. With the holidays approaching, we find ourselves receiving an increased number of donations but it's important to remember that HUNGER DOESN'T TAKE A HOLIDAY so we encourage donations throughout the year in order to continue our mission.

Your donations are very much appreciated. We hope you recognize the difference you are making in the lives of these individuals and families with children. From the volunteers of the Cape Henlopen Food Basket, we say THANK YOU!
